About WageIndicator Foundation - www.wageindicator.org - office@wageindicator.org

WageIndicator started in 2001 to contribute to a more transparent labour market for workers and employers by publishing easily accessible information on a website. It collects, compares and shares labour market information through online and face-to-face surveys and desk research. It publishes the collected information on national websites, thereby serving as an online library for wage information, Labour Law, and career advice, both for workers/employees and employers. The WageIndicator websites and related communication activities reach out to millions of people on a monthly basis.

The WageIndicator concept is owned by the independent, non-profit WageIndicator Foundation, established in 2003. Its Supervisory Board is chaired by the University of Amsterdam/Amsterdam Institute of Advanced labour Studies and includes a representative from the Dutch Confederation of Trade Unions (FNV) and three independent members. The Foundation is assisted by world renowned universities, trade unions and employers' organisations. It currently operates national websites in 89 countries. Its staff consists of some 100 specialists around the world. The Foundation has offices in Amsterdam (HQ), Ahmedabad, Bratislava, Buenos Aires, Cape Town, Dar es Salaam, and Islamabad.

About University of Amsterdam/Amsterdam Institute for Labor Studies - www.uva-aias.net

The University of Amsterdam is a 350-years old research university. Its Amsterdam Institute for Advanced Labor Studies (AIAS) is an interdisciplinary research institute focusing on labor issues, particularly industrial relations, organization of work, working conditions, wage setting, labor- market inequalities, employment and labor market governance. AIAS maintains a large portfolio of internationally funded research projects and international data bases and data collections. Since 2003, AIAS chairs the Supervisory Board of the Wage Indicator Foundation. Kea Tijdens is a Research Coordinator at AIAS and a professor of sociology at Erasmus University Rotterdam. She is the scientific coordinator of the WageIndicator web-survey on work and wages. She has analyzed the data concerning the wage ranking of health care occupations in 20 countries, the impact of short-time arrangements in Germany and the Netherlands, and the relationship of collective bargaining coverage and wage brackets.

About Central European Labour Studies Institute (CELSI) - www.celsi.sk

CELSI is an independent non-profit research institute based in Bratislava, Slovakia. It fosters multidisciplinary research about the functioning of labour markets and institutions, work and organisations, business and society, and ethnicity and migration in the economic, social, and political life of modern societies. Supported by its network of Research Fellows and Affiliates and a new Discussion Paper series, CELSI aims to make a contribution to cutting-edge international scientific discourse. Hosting the Bratislava WageIndicator Office, CELSI has developed expertise in data management and services. Tomáš Kabina is data and survey manager of the WageIndicator web survey.
